

I shall add the Names of the Persons for and against the Speaker's Motion, which being very dark and unintelligible, I shall endeavour presently to Explain.

For the Speaker's Motion

John Hodgons, Esq Speak.	Mr. James Craven, Clerk of
Mr. Tho. Lovick Collect of	the General Court.
Port Beaufort	Mr. Walton
Mr. George Roberts	Col. Macrora Scarborough
Mr. George Bould	Mr. James Sumner
Col. Benjamin Peyton	Col. Thomas Hunter
Mr. Richard Rigby	Mr. Carruthers
Mr. Joseph Tart	Mr. Thomas Pendilton
Col. Benjamin Hill	Mr. David Bayley
Mr. John Blount	Mr. William Relf
Doct. Abraham Blakal,	Mr. John Caron
Deputy Post Master.	Mr. Jacob Caron
Mr. Leary	Mr. Joseph Sutton
Mr. Thomas Lowther	Mr. Joshua Long.
Mr. William Bestram

Against the Speaker's Motion

Col. Maurice Moore	Mr. William Gardnier
Mr. James Castelaw	Mr. Samuel Swann
Mr. Thomas Bryan	Mr. John Swann
Mr. John Brown	Sir Rich Everard, Bar.
Mr. Simon Anderson	Mr. Arthur Mabson
Mr. John Banbury	Mr. Samuel Sinclair
Mr. John Starkey	John Montgomery Esq; His
Mr. William Brice	Majesty's Attorney General.
Mr. Edmund Smithwick

Could any Thing be more absurd to say no worse than this Motion of the Speaker's, or more retrograde to the Sense of the House, if we may judge of their Sense from their Journals, he is directed by them to issue his Warrant to bring before the House, Persons, Papers, [27] and Records, which he refused, and neglected to do, and yet this Gentleman and his worthy Friend Col. Benjamin Hill call for Proofs the Moment the Articles were read, and such Proofs too, as he said, should be sufficient to induce the House to Impeach